

ENDOWED AND NON-ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS, AWARDS AND FUNDS

Ashley Hall is honored when a family or individual establishes a scholarship, award or fund that enhances the Ashley Hall experience. Whether through the recruitment of students and faculty or an award that highlights a student or faculty member's achievements or a program that enriches the academic environment, these gifts impact the entire school and enable us to offer the highest quality of college preparatory education.

Amanda's Endowment of Ashley Hall

In memory of Amanda Willing Dykes

Provides an annual grant to fund Amanda's Academic Achievement Award, which is given to a rising 9th grade student who is in the top five of her class academically and respected by her teachers and peers for her outstanding character and unwavering dedication to all academic endeavors.

Elizabeth Brown Scholarship

Given in memory of Elizabeth C. Brown '72

Assists with tuition throughout all grades.

Laura Carr Memorial Scholarship

In memory of Laura Carr '96

Given to a rising senior who exemplifies individuality, self reliance, and strength of character.

The Marion and Wayland H. Cato, Jr. Scholarship

Awarded to a qualified student who demonstrates academic achievement and financial need.

The Kathryn L. and Wortham W. Dibble Scholarship

Allows Ashley Hall to recruit a diverse population of new students.

The Lois Anderson Ganner Love of Reading Award

In honor of Lois Anderson Ganner '67

Awards a minimum of $200 annually to a 7th or 8th grade student of good character and academic standing who demonstrates a love for reading.

Carmel Ann Goodstein Memorial Award

For a graduating senior who has distinguished herself through persistence and dedication to her work and who has constantly grown in achievement through the Upper School years.

Frene Haynes Award

In memory of Frene Haynes '88

Recognizes talent in the arts, especially among members of minority populations.

Baron and Dewar Holmes Enrichment Fund

Established to support faculty professional development.

The Dr. William H. Huger Home Charitable Trust Scholarship

Given in Memory of Arthur Postell Jervey

Awarded to students who demonstrate financial need, suitable scholarship, and admirable citizenship.

Barbara Ann Huguenin Memorial Scholarship

Awarded to a 5th grade student who lives up to her best and looks for the best in her peers.

Rosemary Nelson Hutto Award for Teaching Excellence

In honor of Rosemary Nelson Hutto who taught Latin at Ashley Hall for many years

Awarded in recognition of teaching excellence in instructional skills, professional commitments, leadership skills, contributions and involvement beyond the classroom, and personal characteristics.

The Meeting Street Academy Scholarship

Awarded to Meeting Street Academy students who are ready to matriculate into an independent school and who meet the challenging admission requirements of Ashley Hall. Scholarships provide support not only for tuition but for a girl's entire scholastic journey including uniforms, activity fees, and books.

The Patricia Trotter Kirkland Endowment for the Humanities

Provides annual funding to support Humanities initiatives including, but not limited to, professional development for Humanities faculty, support for new curricular initiatives, sustaining existing programs and making a Humanities lecture series possible.

Florida Kent Jervey Latin Award

In memory of a beloved teacher

Recognizes the highest grades in first-year Latin.

Lane Family Scholarship

Awarded to a student who demonstrates financial need and academic achievement.

The Daisy Barron Leland Award for Teaching

In honor of Daisy Barron Leland, who taught mathematics at Ashley Hall for 22 years

Awarded in recognition of teaching excellence in mathematics, science or the use of technology in the classroom.

Margaret C. MacDonald Scholarship

Awarded to a student who demonstrates good citizenship and academic achievement.

Dana Mobley Award to Summer Enrichment Grants

In honor of Dana Mobley

Provides endowed support for summer professional enrichment annually. Project proposals may range from personal development to travel to curricular work by individuals or groups at Ashley Hall.

The Minority Scholarship

Awarded to academically gifted students in all grades.

The Class of 1965 Martha Hamilton Morgan History Award

Reestablished as a reunion initiative by members of the Class of 1965 in honor of their 50th reunion, this award will annually produce a grant to a rising junior or senior who has demonstrated a natural affinity for history.

The Candace S. Orvin Palmer '65 Memorial

Given in memory of Candace S. Orvin Palmer '65

Awarded to a rising 9th, 10th, or 11th grade student who demonstrates financial need.

The Countess Alicia Spaulding Paozzi Leadership Endowment

Provides annual funding to enable Ashley Hall to develop new and sustain existing leadership programs for our students and community partners.

The Lois M. Ruggiero Endowed Scholarship

In honor of Lois M. Ruggiero

Awarded to qualified, newly-enrolling rising 7th, 8th, or 9th grade students who meet the academic requirements to attend Ashley Hall and follow all admissions procedures for enrollment. The scholarship is renewable each year until graduation.

Caroline Pardue Scholarship

Awarded to an Intermediate or Upper School student exhibiting good citizenship.

The Purple and White Scholarship

Provides financial aid for academically excellent students of diverse backgrounds in kindergarten through 12th grade.

The Laura Salmons Ragsdale Scholarship

In honor of Laura Salmons Ragsdale '74

Given to an Intermediate or Upper School student who has a special interest and talent in the arts, preferably music.

All efforts have been made to correctly list donations. If, however, an error has been made, please accept our apologies and contact Shana Stockton, Director of Stewardship, at stocktons@ashleyhall.org or (843) 965-8480.

ENDOWED AND NON-ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS, AWARDS AND FUNDS

Ashley Hall is honored when a family or individual establishes a scholarship, award or fund that enhances the Ashley Hall experience. Whether through the recruitment of students and faculty or an award that highlights a student or faculty member's achievements or a program that enriches the academic environment, these gifts impact the entire school and enable us to offer the highest quality of college preparatory education.

Dorothy and Jack Rhodes Family Scholarship

Given to a qualified student new to independent schools during her high school years who demonstrates financial need.

The Schall Family Scholarship

In honor of Miss Mary Vardrine McBee

Created by sisters, Sally Schall Van Allen '38 and Carol Schall Ragsdale '48, this scholarship will annually produce a grant to partially fund tuition for a student with a special talent and of good character who would not otherwise be able to attend Ashley Hall due to financial need.

The Littlest Angel Fund

In memory of Sallie Huguenin Smith Shisko

Awarded to a student in 2nd grade through 6th grade who exemplifies the qualities of an Ashley hall girl and requests financial aid.

Constant Trust Scholarship

Established to assist diverse students or students with financial needs due to special circumstances and who meet the guidelines for financial aid.

Mary Bissell McIver Thompson Award

In honor of Mary Bissell McIver Thompson '28

Given to an Upper School student who demonstrates those ideals and principles that Miss McBee imparted in her students.

Susan Taylor Wall Chair in History

Provides annual stipends to the History Department Chair and resources to support technology and professional development.

Katherine Adele Dunn Watson Scholarship

Awarded to a promising student of good character who demonstrates financial need.

The Mary Webb '76 Scholarship

The Class of 1976 established this scholarship during their reunion in honor of their beloved classmate, Ashley Hall alumnae and Ashley Hall dedicated faculty, Mary Webb '76. This award will annually provide a partial scholarship to a deserving upper school student.

The Libby S. Williams '34 Diversity Scholarship Fund

Created with a gift from Libby S. Williams '34, this scholarship will annually produce awards to fund tuition for students from diverse backgrounds with special consideration for girls matriculating from Meeting Street Academy who have been identified as appropriate candidates for the rigors of an Ashley Hall education.

All efforts have been made to correctly list donations. If, however, an error has been made, please accept our apologies and contact Shana Stockton, Director of Stewardship, at stocktons@ashleyhall.org or (843) 965-8480.